Mary Jane Hayes and her husband Warren have been avid boaters for many years and through many vessels. Owning and cruising both power and sail, they encountered and negotiated their way through it all: on land, at dock, and at sea. In these pages, Mary Jane Hayes shares those experiences through a collection of stories that ultimately weaves itself into a tale so interesting and so enjoyable that anyone who loves life and a good book is sure to be mesmerized.

Serena was their first sailing vessel. A 32-foot Grand Banks trawler was their next "little ship," christened Sea Story in honor of first mate and author Mary Jane Hayes. Ultimately, Sea Story II followed. Through it all, the stories were lived and the times were written. Now they are all here in this book for everyone to enjoy.

Take this book home! Put on some comfortable clothes, collect a pleasing beverage, find yourself a cozy chair, and prepare to pleasantly drift away to another place, another life, another world. Under the skilled direction of author

Mary Jane Hayes, you will be taken along as she and her husband Warren pursue one adventure after another. You may yourself be a lover of boating and the cruising life, or you may be someone simply fortunate enough to love the company of a good book and a good story.
